

Hear Frist, Glaser, and Horn Speak about the Future of Health Care the Day after the Election

Woburn, MA, October 23, 2012 - The 8th Annual World Healthcare Innovation and Technology Congress is pleased to announce the Honorable William Frist, former Majority Leader and Heart Transplant Surgeon, John Glaser, Chief Executive Officer of Health Services, Siemens Healthcare, and Kim Horn, President, Kaiser Foundation Health Plan of the Mid-Atlantic States to speak the day after the election on the future of health care.

The Honorable William Frist will give the opening keynote address on, “The 2012 Election: How Last Night’s Election Will Shape the Next Decade of Healthcare”

In this timely opening keynote address, scheduled for Wednesday, November 7, at 1:15 p.m., Senator Frist will discuss the 2012 election results and the potential impact it will have on the future of our healthcare system by discussing:

- What effects will November 6th have for the country and "real" healthcare reform?
- Will the PPACA be repealed?
- Will Medicare be transformed?
- And how will all of this affect you?

John Glaser, Chief Executive Officer of Health Services, Siemens Healthcare, and Kim Horn, President, Kaiser Foundation Health Plan of the Mid-Atlantic States will speak immediately after Dr. Frist on a keynote CEO panel discussion: “The Day after the Presidential Election – What’s Next for the Health Care Industry?”

The panel will react to the Honorable William H. Frist MD’s visionary address. The thought leaders will lend their insight on how the Supreme Court ruling and 2012 Presidential Election will impact the health care industry, from both a policy and business perspective.
