Under the Patronage of H.H. General Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan
Abu Dhabi Attracts The World Health Care Congress
Middle East, December 5-7, 2010

Abu Dhabi – 15 February 2010: Under the Patronage of H.H. General Sheikh Mohammed Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi and Deputy Supreme Commander of the United Arab Emirates' Armed Forces, the World Health Care Congress (WHCC) Middle East will begin a three-year endeavor on December 5-7, 2010 in Abu Dhabi. www.worldcongress.com/me

The support of the Crown Prince, the Health Authority - Abu Dhabi (HAAD), the regulative body of the Healthcare Sector in the Emirate of Abu Dhabi and Abu Dhabi Tourism Authority (ADTA), the body responsible for building and developing the Abu Dhabi's tourism industry, for the World Health Care Congress Middle East is another important step in the strategic commitment to excellence and innovation in health care in Abu Dhabi to develop a global center for health care innovation and research.

The World Health Care Congress Middle East is the most prestigious health care event convening global thought leaders and key decision makers from all sectors of health care to share global best practices in health care innovation and improvement.

The Congress will feature the top industry influencers, including health Ministers, leading government officials, hospital Directors, IT innovations, pharmaceutical and medical device companies and health care industry suppliers.

H.E. Engineer Zaid Al Siksek, Chief Executive Officer of the Health Authority – Abu Dhabi said: “Abu Dhabi is committed to continuous improvement, innovation and excellence in health care for all of its residents, the Middle East in general, and to inspire health innovation and improvement worldwide. We envisage the event attracting a high regional and international turnout of health care executives, providers, and government leaders to explore fresh ideas and unique insights.

World Health Care Congress Middle East will feature Executive Summits on:

- Health care Innovation and Investment
- Emerging Health Care Business Models
- Public and population health
- Hospital/Health Systems
- Health Care IT
- Chronic Care
- Health Technology and Interoperability

“The topics to be addressed at the summits will be actionable and strategic, designed to address local and global challenges in quality, cost effectiveness, outcomes, and new models for finance and improvements in healthcare delivery”, H.E. added.

“There is an increasing amount of innovation in health care throughout the world, yet often dramatically better health delivery practices and outcomes are not even widely recognized within their own countries,” said WHCC Chairman Vidar Jorgenson. “Abu Dhabi is providing a great service by sponsoring a World Health Care Congress that will focus on innovation, identifying and promoting these important health care innovations with recognition throughout the world, inspiring even more health innovation and sharing in the future.”
