World Health Care Congress to gather global thought leaders to share insights on the future of the medical travel industry

8th Annual World Health Care Congress to host 1st Annual Global Medical Travel Forum, April 4-5, 2011, Washington, D.C.

Washington DC, February 23, 2011 – With the global medical travel market poised to reach at least $60 billion by 2012, the 1st Annual Global Medical Travel Forum at the 2011 World Health Care Congress will gather global thought leaders to share insights on the future of the rapidly growing industry.

Scheduled for April 4-5, the forum is part of WHCC's 2nd Annual World Health Innovation Summit. More than 40 countries and 1,800 delegates from around the globe will be represented at the conference, including over 200 CEOs from major health plans and third party administrators, over 150 senior executives from the world's largest employers and over 200 CEOs from the world's leading hospitals and health systems.

Author of Medical Tourism Guidebook and Global Medical Travel Expert - Dr Prem Jagyasi will serve as forum chairman. According to research he recently conducted, 94 percent of experts agree medical tourism maintains significant room for growth and much of the market remains untapped.

For the agenda and to register to attend, visit www.worldhealthcarecongress.com/medicaltravel.

Medical Travel Forum presenters will include:

- Vishal Bali, Chief Executive Officer, Fortis Hospitals (India)
- Devi Shetty, MD, Founder and Chairman, Narayana Hrudayalaya Hospitals (India), Founder, a new healthcare facility in the Cayman Islands
